Jorge is the Founder and President of Munilla Construction Management LLC (“MCM”), a diverse construction company headquartered in Miami, Florida specializing in building and heavy civil construction since 1983. MCM’s fields of expertise include general building structures, residential multi-story buildings, commercial facilities, schools, roads, bridges, and aviation infrastructure.

With over 35 years of construction and business experience, Jorge provides a full spectrum of leadership and executive support to the company in all areas of operations. Jorge oversees and is responsible for the construction, project management and project administration activities for all building and civil projects throughout Florida, Texas, and Panama. He leads the company’s Board of Directors and ensures the company is meeting or exceeding its goals and the expectations of its clients.

Jorge’s goal-oriented and client satisfaction mentality has ensured the continued growth and strength of MCM over the past 30 years. While doing so, Jorge has also ensured the company and its 900 employees worldwide remain committed to safety and quality, evidenced by the company’s excellent EMR rating and repeat client base. Under Jorge’s direction and leadership, MCM has built itself into an industry leading builder in South Florida, as well as being ranked the 7th Largest Hispanic-Owned Business throughout the United States by Hispanic Business Magazine.

Jorge is also actively involved in several organizations in the construction industry such as the Latin Builders Association, and he is a Board Member, and immediate past President of the South Florida Association of General Contractors. He is also an affiliate of the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce and is a current member of The Dean’s Council for FIU’s School of Business. Jorge and his five Munilla brothers, as involved members of the community and with a strong commitment to providing a positive contribution, also created the Munilla Family Foundation; a philanthropic organization dedicated to supporting local charitable initiatives.

Jorge and his wife, Jacquelyn, reside in Miami and are happily married for over 25 years. They are the proud parents of James and Julian. Jorge and his family directly support a large number of philanthropic and charitable organizations such as the United Way, Big Brother and Big Sisters of Greater Miami, the American Cancer Society, Liga Contra el Cancer, the Humane Society of Greater Miami, Miami Youth and Family Services, and the Miami Children’s Foundation.
